재현,재발

Her reappearance had only confirmed what I'd already known.

Graduation was only a few weeks away, but I wondered if it wasn't a little foolish to sit around, weak and tasty, waiting for the next disaster.

I don't think Victoria's going to catch us off guard.

He walked slowly back to the driftwood bench, staring at the rainbow-colored pebbles, and pulling me along at his side. "Quil's not looking for pity. Just the opposite — he's jazzed. Totally thrilled." All the other wolves had been so depressed at the idea of their friend sharing their fate. Jacob tilted his head back to look at me. He smiled and rolled his eyes. Sam and I are the only ones who ever felt really bitter. The questions tumbled out without room to answer them, and Jacob laughed again. Jacob shrugged. "So don't go back. I'll sleep on the couch." "Yeah, right," Jacob muttered. "I'm sure he's quite the pacifist." "Ugh!" I ripped my hand out of his and shoved his head away. I glared out toward the horizon, fuming. The first time it happened — the first time he phased — he thought he'd gone insane. Hearing her name sent an automatic surge of pity through me. He smiled and leaned back, undecieved by my attempt at nonchalance. "You think I should be as forgiving as you are? We can't all be saints and martyrs." "It's gonna take a really long time to learn that kind of restraint, I think. Even Sam's not there We can't even think about quitting when the tribe needs protectors.

“Yeah.” The story in Forks was that she was mauled by a bear, but I was in on the secret.
Werewolves are unstable, Edward had said. The people near them get hurt.

I gazed away, toward the jagged rocks that rose from the ocean like stubby broken-off fingers on the south rim of the harbor, while I tried to make sense of it all.

My intuition told me that I didn’t want to hear what he was thinking.
“It’s sometimes helpful when we need to coordinate,” he said grudgingly.
I flinched back from her fierce expression.

Emmett and Jasper were the closest thing to indestructible I could imagine.

“He can’t hear me,” I explained, my voice a tiny bit smug from old habit.
Everything changed color — the waves turned from gray to blue, the trees from dull olive to brilliant jade, and the rainbow-hued pebbles glittered like jewels.
We squinted for a moment, letting our eyes adjust. There were no sounds besides the hollow roar of the waves that echoed from every side of the sheltered harbor, the soft grinding of the stones against each other under the water’s movement, and the cry of gulls high overhead.
He made a little sound of contentment in the back of his throat, and rested his cheek on the top of my head.

Absentmindedly, I twisted my right hand to the side, and watched the sunlight glitter subtly off the scar James had left there.

He chuckled to himself. “I was remembering that moronic movie you took me to. And Mike Newton pukeing all over everything.”
It was the last night Jacob and I had had before he’d learned the truth about his heritage.
I smacked his shoulder. It hurt my hand.
I got to my feet, and he caught my hand as I started to walk away. I tried to tug free.
“Aw, don’t be mad,” he said, grinning. “Knee-jerk reaction.”
That’s irrelevant. You are Jacob, and he is Edward, and I am Bella. And nothing else “And I’m a Virgo!” I shouted, exasperated.

I thought as I squinted into the glare, there was no danger.
 I’d been counting on some prep time . . . and having Charlie nearby as a buffer.
 this engine stuttered to a stop, followed by the loud pop of a backfire.
 A horn honked on the street.
 Then she turned to me and grinned ruefully.
 “Ben’s pretending he has tendonitis.”
 “I thought you were exaggerating.”
 When she asked a question like that, I could tell that she wasn’t just morbidly curious or looking for gossip,
 I laughed a little, still staring at the envelope.
 A swell of quiet sadness crashed over me;
 I tried to smile, but my lips trembled.
 There was this final fight sequence — the choreography was unbelievable!
 I ambled toward the kitchen, looking for busy work.
 I cringed, waiting for the torrent, but it didn’t come.
 Is this just a testosterone-fueled —"
 His eyes blazed.
 It wasn’t sneaking around.
 “All the boys went, and we’re having a slumber party!”
 I turned my face to the window, my teeth grinding together.
 Alice said, not sounding in the least bit penitent.
 She danced along next to me, still unrepentant.
 My voice turned acidic.
 “Yes, because a vampire slumber party is the pinnacle of safety conscious behavior.”
 She pouted.
 “Can’t you just keep me under surveillance at my house?”
 Alice shook her head in exasperation.
 she said, flitting from the room.
 “Their hearts !” he scoffed.
 he asked in a scathing tone.
 — to make room for the colossal bed that now dominated the central space.
 It matched. The coverlet was a dull gold, just lighter than the walls; the frame was black, made of intricately patterned wrought iron.
 Sculpted metal roses wound in vines up the tall posts and formed a bowery lattice overhead.
 “What the hell is all this?” I spluttered.

 his nostrils flared, his lips pulled back over his teeth.
 He put his arm around my waist and pulled me swiftly toward the kitchen.
 it was difficult to hear him over the thumping of the washing machine.
 he interrupted me quickly,shaking his head.
 Panic overwhelmed me, closed my throat.
 Still grinning, he put his bowl in the sink and sauntered out of the room.
 Charlie met my frightened eyes with a smug grin, which suddenly turned to confusion.
 he told me, his volume normal but his voice bleak.
 They were waiting for us, on alert after Edward's call.
 I was shocked to see that he was glowering at Alice, his hands fisted n anger.
 Edward threw his hands up in exasperation.
 "Who else would leave Charlie alive?" I shuddered.

 Lifetime of servitude up for grabs-
 "Thank you," he breathed fervently.

 Jacob's voice was ashamed, rather than bitter, for once.
 "Has your pack come across anything new?"
 "Here's the crux,Jacob.-'
 Whatever he was saying, he was more intense than before.
 We're quite willing to renegotiate.
 If Sam is amenable.
 I started chewing on my thumbnail as I tried to read Edward's expression.
 Then Jacob said something that caused a surprised expression to flicker across Edward's
 I asked Jacob, my voice peeved.
 I knew it was juvenile, but I felt excluded.
 "A truce, I think.Hey, do me a favor,"
 "Try to convince your bloodsucker that the safest place for you to be-he snorted."Don't be stupid. I can take care of myself."

Then I went to the laundry closet beside the pantry,
 “Your hair stinks worse than your room.”
 He’s pretty peeved that you found out before he did.”
 I could just imagine how that would have irked Quil — Jacob’s little human gal pal down with the werewolves while he was still clueless.

His big dark eyes were full of unashamed pleading.

“Is he your warden, now, too? You know, I saw this story on the news last week about controlling, abusive teenage relationships and —”

I growled incoherently at the empty room.

“I was just wondering why you stabbed him. Not that I object.”
 I pulled away from him and ran to put the knife in the sink before I doused it with bleach.
 My eyes narrowed suspiciously at his tone. I went to investigate.
 no one in the town of Forks would be able to escape the fallout from his excitement.

I teased halfheartedly,
 “this whole secrecy and deception thing is kind of a pain.”
 “Sorry, that was harsh.”
 “Always so stubborn.”

The washing machine thumped and stuttered to a halt.

When she came to get my pajamas and pillow and stuff to hold me hostage.
 I glowered at him briefly.
 “When I got back from the fake slumber party. Why?”
 He broke off and listened, his face taut with concentration for a few minutes.
 “Maybe I’ll go . . .,” Edward said, trailing off as his eyes drifted toward me.
 The headline of the Seattle Times read: “Murder Epidemic Continues — Police Have No New Leads.”
 They will intervene soon, very soon, unless we can find some way to calm the situation.
 “For me,” he amended quietly.
 and trying to put out of my mind the yearning I felt to go to La Push so that I wouldn’t be swayed by my own wishes.
 for just a few hours . . . to be the less-mature, more-reckless Charlie had no problem at all with me going to La Push for a bonfire.

Jacob crowed with undisguised exultation when I called to give him the news, and he seemed eager enough to embrace Edward’s safety measures.

He promised to meet us at the line between territories at six.
 I had decided, after a short internal debate, that I would not sell my motorcycle.

I didn’t have time to procrastinate any task, no matter how minor.

Edward only nodded when I explained what I wanted, but I thought I saw a flicker of consternation
 in his eyes, and I knew he was no happier about the idea of me on a motorcycle than Charlie since it didn’t seem to belong to the same family as my suddenly shabby-looking bike.
 I realized that this was not a bad analogy for the way I probably looked next to Edward.

He dropped my face and leaned over the far side of the big motorcycle, retrieving something

stash [stæʃ]	감추다(away), 그만두다(up), 은닉처, (미 속어) 코 밑수염
crook [krúk]	(팔, 손가락 등을) (갈고리 모양으로) 구부리다. 갈고리로 낚아채다 (속어) 훔치다

238 indeed [ɪndí : d]	(강조) 실로, 참으로,

he dropped my face and leaned over the far side of the big motorcycle, renewing something he had stashed there.

"Please?" he asked, flashing the crooked smile that always destroyed my resistance.

"Be honest, how hideous do I look?"

Though, I'll admit it, this helmet does have its drawbacks."

I realized that this unprecedented situation felt oddly familiar.

we rounded the corner and found Jacob leaning against the side of the red Volkswagen he'd built for himself out of scraps.

Edward pulled the bike and my new gear out of the trunk of his car

Jacob watched, making no move to approach, his smile gone and his dark eyes

I turned my face up for a goodbye peck, fastening his arms tightly around me and kissing me with as much enthusiasm as he had in the garage

"What's all that?" Jacob called to me, his voice wary, scrutinizing the motorcycle with an enigmatic expression.

He pondered that for one short second, and then his wide smile stretched across his face, closing the distance in three long strides.

He took the bike from me, balanced it on the kickstand, and grabbed me up in another vice-tight hug.

He laughed again, louder than before — he found what I'd said very funny indeed.

Paul asked Jacob, his eyes locked on the last remnant of the huge meal the werewolves had consumed

The flames at the edge of the bonfire licked along its blistered skin

"I'm so full I'm about to puke, but I think I can force it down"

He glowered and his hands balled up into fists

He flipped the homemade skewer across the circle

Hanging out with no one but extremely dexterous people all the time was going to give me a complex

And he had admitted ruefully that the helmet was a good idea that he should have thought of

The spirit warriors turned the dogs against their masters and then brought a mighty infestation of bats up from the cliff caverns

"Even in times of peace, the spirit chief was vigilant in protecting his people

It was more frightening than exhilarating to be freed from one's body

Emily's pen never hesitated as she scribbled furiously on the paper

"But the creature learned quickly, and soon was matching their maneuvers"

He scoffed in a low voice

His eyes wide with adulation for the fraternity of tribal protectors

Whoever had ransacked my hamper had critically impaired my wardrobe

12. TIME

"Don't be a baby about this. No tantrums"

I asked petulantly

I'm so attuned to it now, I swear I could pick it out from miles away

"Bella, for a fairly intuitive person, you can be so obtuse!"
 I gasped out between the paroxysms of giggles
 His liquid gold eyes turned hypnotic as they held mine
 I would have wanted you for eternity, even when the word didn't have quite the same connotations
 It's been less than a decade since the city of Seattle was the hunting ground for the most prolific serial killer in U.S. History
 And now a beleaguered Seattle must face the possibility that it could be harboring an even more horrifying monster at this very moment
 "Self-fulfilling prophecy, I think"
 And I'd always been too intimidated by the tall, blond vampire.
 I held out my hand, the silvery crescent more prominent against my cream skin than against his alabaster
 The use of some kind of accelerant, like gasoline or alcohol, seems to be indicated in the conflagration

Edward's voice was bleak.
that would explain the Volturi's sluggish response.

The present and the future, virtual omniscience.
The power of the idea intoxicated him.
Edward and Alice in black, flowing robes, drifting along at Aro's side

"they'll clean up afterward. A double betrayal" Edward said in a grim voice.

Besides, it's much too sloppy.
There was something bothering me, and I couldn't put my finger on it.

Alice's head cocked to the side as she processed the change in my tone

She folded her arms across her chest, pleased with her unassailable logic.

My eyes bulged again.

My feeling of relief flared again as I listened to my mother describe Phil's accident on the ball field – while demonstrating a slide, he'd tangled up with the catcher and broken his thigh
Though it was the middle of the afternoon, my call woke Jacob up, and he was grouchy at
"I'm absolutely certain he'll mention it himself," Edward said in a wry tone.

Jacob sat down on the old couch that was no bigger than a loveseat and squished himself to the side to make room for me.

He picked up the remote and flipped on the TV without seeming to think about it.
He stretched his long arms slowly, and I could hear the joints crack as he flexed.

His voice turned flat, and his face, already drawn, looked downright haggard as his eyes closed again – not in exhaustion this time, but in denial.

Finals were done, and most of them had been a cakewalk.

And I was sure that at least my mother – were I to tell her every detail of the truth – would be more strenuously opposed to me getting married than to me becoming a vampire.

I grimaced to myself as I imagined her horrified expression.

Jacob snorted and rolled to his side.

Holy crow, but he was heavy !

It was sweltering after just a few seconds.

A few Emerils.
He flopped back on the couch next to me.
I started gnawing on my lip.
As he watcher my dumbfounded expression. (dumbfounded는 뜻이 안나오네요 ^^;;)
I tried to clear the obstruction.

He nodded, unruffled
he was impossible to discourage
"You're a glutton for punishment" I grumbled at least?" I asked, irritated
I took an involuntary step back
He laughed "I forgive you."
There really is something irresistible about a lost cause
He held up his hand when I started to protest
And now he's just going to have to deal with the consequence of that choice
He took my chin in his hand,~ I couldn't look away from his intent gaze
"No, dammit! You broke my hand!"
How pathetic.
Hate is a passionate emotion.
"Murder, the ultimate crime of passion"
"That was trying to get you the hell off of me, you idiot" ~ trying to stretch out my fingers, to ascertain where the broken parts were
I ground my teeth in frustration
I'am going to go hunt up a crowbar
Charlie laughed, too, and I scowled while I beat the tray against the edge of the sink and I grabbed a handful with my good hand and wrapped the cubes in the dishcloth on the Childishly I turned my face away from him.

 Rosalie's perfect legs, recognizable even sheathed in jeans
 His head shook infinitesimally
 "It's infantile,"he shrugged.
 "Yes," he admitted unwillingly.
 I guess I could throw in a few extra homicides, if it makes Jasper happy. Why not?"
 just a tiny fissure in one knuckle.
 I was in pain, but I assured him that that wasn't it ~vampires had been percolating~
 What was a motivating prize when you had everything?
 to keep me from doing anything I would regret.

“I HAVE NOTHING TO WEAR!” I MOANED TO MYSELF.
 I stared into the empty recesses , willing something suitable to appear.
 I scowled at the pile of clothes on my bed.
 The kicker was that I knew exactly what I would have worn if it were still available— my kidnapped red blouse.
 “Stupid, thieving , annoying vampire!” I growled .
 I looked at the big package lying on top of my unsatisfying wardrobe and grimaced .
 She sighed when I didn't move immediately, and tugged the top of the box off herself.
 Alice wasn't accustomed to being taking by surprise.
 “You're right,” she said in a hollow tone.
 “Oh, no,” she mouthed .
 the army that had gruesomely murdered dozens of people in Seattle
 I felt a spasm of relief.
Thud, thud — a fist hammered against my door.
 “Almost. Give me a minute,” I said hoarsely .
 I heard him clump down the stairs.
 Edward would go berserk when he knew.
 “Put it on,” Alice commanded as she flitted out the window.
 I did what she said, dressing in a daze .
 I'd been planning to do something more sophisticated with my hair,
 I threw the ugly yellow polyester graduation robe over my arm and hurried down the stairs.
 “You look nice,” Charlie said, already gruff with suppressed emotion.
 It wasn't enough time for me to pull together a calm façade .
 Charlie had gotten stubborn last week when he'd learned that I was intending to ride with Edward to the graduation ceremony.
 ~ Charlie couldn't come up with a compelling objection ~
 And now Edward rode in the backseat of my father's police car, behind the fiberglass divider, with an amused expression
 He looked like he wanted to say more, but Charlie, in an obvious maneuver that he meant to be subtle , shrugged in between us and put his arm around my shoulders.
 “Dad,” I moaned. “Please don't get all weepy on me.”

You need something to perk you up.”

It was pandemonium as Ms. Cope from the front office and Mr. Varner the math teacher tried to line everyone up alphabetically .

I walked down the line to take my place behind Jessica, mildly curious as to why she was suddenly so friendly.

Jess was babbling before I was in earshot.

she gushed .
She droned on and on, ~

Because it was an ending, no matter what Eric, the valedictorian , had to say about commencement meaning “beginning” and all the rest of the trite nonsense.

I felt like I’d hit the fast forward button .

And then Eric was speed talking in his nervousness, the words and phrases running together so they didn’t make sense anymore.

Principal Greene started calling names, one after the other without a long enough pause between; the front row in the gymnasium was rushing to catch up.

Poor Ms. Cope was all thumbs as she tried to give the principal the right diploma to hand to the right student.

Only the two of them could carry off the hideous yellow and still look the way they did.

A couple of angels, standing there with wings intact, would be less conspicuous .

I managed to throw them an approximation of a smile.

and she kept blotting her face with the sleeve of her robe.

“Oh, Bella!” Jess blubbered over the sudden roar of conversation.

I hugged her back, feeling a little awkward as I dodged her request.

“It was,” she sighed, and sniffed .

she squealed , waving over her head and pushing through the massed yellow gowns.

I craned my head, looking for Alice.

His voice was subdued ; he’d been in no hurry for me to reach this particular milestone .

I looked up to see his confused expression as he stared toward the back door of the gym, and I made an impulse decision well, don’t go berserk, regardless , okay?

“You know what she’s hiding from me,” he accused .

I saw Charlie’s head bob up over the other heads as he searched for me.

It’s just one person who’s messaging with Alice’s visions.

I put my hand on his cheek. “Calm,” I pleaded .

He wrapped his arms around me, ever so slyly shuffling Edward off to the side as he did so.

Edward’s mouth was hanging open, his eyes still wide with dread .

it was pure fury that was suddenly plain on his features.

“Don’t be silly . Do you want to go to the Lodge?”

He turned his head halfway toward Edward, without really looking at him.

I stared at him, my eyes beseeching .

“No, thank you,” Edward said stiffly , his face hard and cold.

Edward turned abruptly and stalked away through the dwindling crowd.

The place was, in my opinion, overpriced and tacky , but it was the only thing close to a formal restaurant in town, so it was always popular for events.

I stared morosely at a depressed-looking stuffed elk head while Charlie ate prime rib and talked over the back of the seat to Tyler Crowley’s parents.

everyone there had just come from graduation, and most were chatting across the aisles and over the booth-tops like Charlie.

Dinner dragged . Charlie, busy socializing, ate too slowly.

I went out to wait by the cruiser .

I leaned against the passenger door, waiting for Charlie to drag himself away from the impromptu party.

My gasp turned into a sigh of relief as Edward appeared out of the gloom .

One cool hand found my chin , and pulled my face up so that he could press his hard lips to

Charlie called from the doorway of the restaurant, squinting into the darkness.

Charlie sauntered out to the car, muttering about impatience .

Charlie chuckled .

It wasn’t easy to talk about feelings with Charlie, but I persevered after clearing my throat .

He snorted .

I stared down blankly at my hands. My left hand rested lightly on the dark brace I rarely thought about.

My broken knuckle didn’t hurt much anymore.

“I never thought I needed to teach you how to throw a punch .

“Where’s the turnoff , again?” he asked.

Alice said she put a map in the invitation , but even so, maybe everyone will get lost.

The black velvet darkness was interrupted ahead, just where the Cullens’ drive should be.

I watched him drive away, still grinning . With a sigh, I marched up the stairs to endure my party.

The room was soon crowded, though never claustrophobic .
Bodies swayed to the beat that rumbled under the soles of their feet the party constantly on the edge of breaking into a dance.
Alice was almost purring – no one here would forget this night.
he dropped his arm and edged away from me.
oblivious to my distraction.
where the lights only shone intermittently .
I stretched up on my toes, craning my neck.
I ducked my way through the bodies
“Who invited the werewolf?” she griped at me.
I’d thought I’d rescinded that invitation
I turned my back toward the door resolutely
Jacob’s deep voice caught a lull in the music
I looked up in spite of myself at the sound of my name.
Jacob had let himself in, flanked on either side by Quil and Embry.
like they’d just walked into a haunted crypt .
He came out of nowhere .
my right hook was too subtle for you,
I guess I deluded myself into thinking you wanted me to.
His lower lip juted out just a little bit.
I kept up the lame pretense “Right,” he grumbled sarcastically .
pulled out a small bag of a loose-woven , multi-colored fabric.
“I didn’t make the bracelet,” he admitted. “Just the charm .”
detail involved in the little figurine
It was even carved out of some red-brown wood that matched the color of his skin.
I figured that maybe it would make you remember me once in a while .
he said, slipping into the plural at the end.
The psychic saw something.
murmured, pitching his voice below the thrum of the music.
they started moving, weaving their way agilely through the parties.
They had me backed into a corner in every sense .
It was a little bit funny, but mostly menacing .
three werewolves braced themselves .

They'd all reassured me.
 Jasper meaningfully until a flood of peace swirled around me
 Emmett laughing boisterously and asking why I was the only one who was..
 Jacob's solution had them all relaxed, almost euphoric after the long weeks of stress.
 The party had ended on a note of true celebration.
 My nerves felt frayed and exposed.
 Bella, you're worn out.
 I could have ripped a chainsaw to life and it wouldn't have wakened him.
 I shook his shoulder vigorously.
 I wasn't going to let him sneak off without me.
 He was still radiating relief.
 I truly believe that the wolves' hunting techniques will work flawlessly against them.
 Someone may have to sit out.
 I would have to wait, bide my time...
 and even in his run I could feel the elation.
 Emmett's booming laugh echoed through the wide space now and then.
 but I realized that we were in the baseball clearing.
 the Cullens had been interrupted by James and his coven.
 Was it possible that the Volturi were the flexible ones in this equation?
 like a hurricane moving toward the coast in a straight line— unavoidable, implacable, but predictable.
 if she sits safely behind and lets the newborns wreak their havoc here.
 Perhaps she's counting on us to win, in the end, though certainly not without heavy casualties of our own.
 and then suddenly smiled at me, coming back from his reverie.
 You're very perceptive today
 I shuddered at the ferocious longing in his voice.

I strained, fighting against Jacob's inert strength.
Jacob muttered, still fast asleep, his arms constricting again.
Edward was crouching in front of me, and I couldn't see his face, Edward groaned, revolted . Slowly, he looked up to glare at Jacob with hostile eyes.
I winced , wondering what might have come out of my mouth in my sleep.
I elbowed Edward in the ribs — probably giving myself a bruise .
Pain crackled down my spine and lodged in my stomach as I abruptly realized ~
“Alice told Sam it should be an hour or so,” Edward said, soft and bleak .
“Sorry,” I murmured. “That’s just the way I differentiate .”
“That makes sense.” He sounded slightly mollified .
Weren't you under the ludicrous impression I was just acting from a guilty conscience, ~
I thought about the way he'd kissed me, the concession I'd gained, and changed my mind.
~ the silence outside the tent was ripped apart by an earsplitting howl of pain.
The sound ricocheted off the bare rock face of the mountain and filled the air so that it seared from every direction.
I recognized the sound and understood the meaning as perfectly as if I'd uttered it myself.
Edward answered quietly. “Truce over,”
“Do you think I care whether it's fair or whether he was adequately warned?”
I shrugged off Jacob's parka, shoved my feet into my boots, and crawled stiffly to the door;
my legs felt numb .
Seth Clearwater was curled up on a patch of dry pine needles in the shadow of a thick spruce , his head on his paws.
Was there anything I touched that didn't get spoiled ?
I couldn't allow what hurtme to influence my decisions anymore.
Edward would never see me shed another tear for Jacob Black.
How ridiculously greedy could any one person be?
I grabbed the canteen hanging beside the tent door and shook it. It sloshed wetly, so I unscrewed the lid
Seth whined at that moment, and got to his feet.
A cold trickle of fear began to ooze down my spine.
With sudden, chilling certainty I realized that they would
I thought of the tense standoff in the tent this morning, ~
~ the sun shimmered on his skin like it did on the snow.
There was no end to his generosity .
I know how to redeem myself.
The sudden, frenzied light in his eyes frightened me.
There's a pretty serious fight brewing down there.
Despite all my intentions to cut Jacob out of my life completely, ~
For fifteen minutes while I miss a good brawl ?
~ he said, his face going calm again, but for the turbulent light in his eyes.
His eyes widened in surprise, then narrowed suspiciously. “You're bluffing .”
Jacob rocked back on his heels, and then lurched forward, ~ — my eyes closed, my fingers curled into fists at my sides — as his hands caught my face and his lips found mine with an eagerness that was not far from violence.
One hand moved to the nape of my neck, ~
I left it there, my hand still tightly balled up, unsure how far I could go in my desperation to keep him alive.
I shivered as I felt his teeth graze my earlobe .

Anger rocked through me like the whiplash after a heavy punch.
The jolt of anger unbalanced my tenuous hold on self-control; his unexpected, ecstatic response overthrew it entirely.
The tiny piece of my brain that retained sanity screamed questions at me.
Almost tangible — it burned against my skin like acid, a slow torture.
I could see Charlie and Renée mixed into a strange collage with Billy and Sam and La Push.
I felt the splintering along the fissure line in my heart ~
I opened my eyes and he was staring at me with wonder and elation .

I'm not sure those kinds of stitches dissolve on their own .
I can beg and grovel on my knees for you to stay.

Had Edward ripped our way out?

They stared at each other with absolute concentration for one infinite second. something horrible had gone awry in the clearing.

I had no silver dagger in my hand, but I would find a way

Before I could get the first syllable out,

I found myself with my back pressed against the sheer cliff face.

my stomach dropped through the soles of my feet.

Edward held a defensive position half-crouched

I recognized with sickening certainty.

“Victoria,” he said, spitting the word, making it a curse.

She made a spur-of-the-momen t decision to find me.

just the gangly fifteen-year-old boy.

Edward’s body shifted — only infinitesimally

the fire around her face seemed to shimmer slightly

There was a striking feline quality to the way she held her coiled body

An immense distance away, from far across the black forest

I guessed from his brilliant crimson irises that he couldn’t have been a vampire for very long.

He would be strong, but inept.

Riley automatically compensated with an adjustment of his own.

Edward’s soft voice was compelling, almost hypnotic.

Riley cast a frantic glance in her direction.

Victoria’s gaze zeroed in on the gap between us.

Victoria leaned forward onto the balls of her feet.

It was soft, it was high – a babyish, soprano tinkling.

Her fingers were ready claws,

A mammoth tan shape flew through the center of the opening

Something white and hard smacked into the rocks by my feet. I

Her eyes were still on me, filled with a disappointment so ferocious that she looked derange d.

Riley was on his feet again, looking misshapen and haggard

he was able to fling a vicious kick into Seth’s shoulder

She sashay ed back, moving from side to side, trying to find a hole in his defense.

He shadowed her footwork lithely

Seth lunged at Riley from the side

Another heavy white chunk flew into the forest with a thud.

Riley took a swipe at him with one mangled hand.

Victoria was weaving through the tree trunks at the far end of the little opening now.

her feet pulling her toward safety while her eyes yearn ed toward me the burning desire to kill warring with her survival instinct.

“You can always run later,” Edward purred.

A partner with an uncanny instinct for escaping

Edward’s lips pulled up on one side as he tapped his temple.

With a strangle d screech, Victoria darted out of the trees again

Just then, Riley’s fist caught Seth’s flank and a low yelp coughed out of Seth’s throat.

this dance was not as perfectly choreograph ed.
Sharp crunches and crackings reverberate d off the cliff face
Riley bellow ed and launched a massive backhanded blow
I ducked out of the way as he rebounded off the stone

A jagged spike of rock rolled down my right arm and I caught it reflexively .

My fingers clenched around the long shard as my own survival instincts kicked in Adrenaline jolt ed through my veins.

Riley lurch ed toward me his hands – mangled, broken hands – curled into talon s.
and then pressed the sharp tip to the crease at my elbow.

in the split second that I stared into Victoria’s eyes

I thought I heard a familiar, exasperate d sigh.

Victoria had flown out of the blurred formation and smashed into a tall spruce

Simultaneously , Edward had twisted backward

The little campsite was filled with Riley’s piercing shriek of agony.

Something small and white whistled through the air and collide d with her mid-flight the missile that had cripple d her attack.

The fingers were still twitching; grasping at blades of grass

With an earsplitting metallic screech, Riley lost his other arm.

Riley screamed out a tortured plea .

Seth launched himself forward with the force of a wrecking ball.

The thrust carried both Seth and Riley into the trees

She began to back away from Edward, frenzied disappointment blazing in her eyes.

“No,” Edward croon ed, his voice seductive

She wheeled and flew toward the refuge of the forest like an arrow from a bow.

Edward’s mouth brushed once across her neck, like a caress .

The squealing clamor coming from Seth’s efforts covered every other noise there was no discernible sound to make the image one of violence.

The four gray-shrouded figures hulking behind her were also somewhat familiar.
Jane stared at Carlisle in consternation .
She shook her head infinitesimal ly, and then composed her features.
The newborn shot a baleful glare at Jane, her lips pressed tightly together.
she observed, smiling directly at me, her face beatific .
I shivered, deeply grateful that the strange glitch in my system
